

Balsarotti To Chair Leadership Council

JOE BALSAROTTI was elected as chairman of the NFIB Leadership Council at the January meeting. Joe cites growing the membership as his number one priority.

“The Leadership Council and the sales people will be working together to introduce more business owners to NFIB. With the addition of the Value Added Services Program, there has never been a better time to join NFIB. Because there is strength in numbers, shouldn't every current member recruit at least one more member to increase our voice at the Capitol?” Balsarotti said.

Joe Balsarotti takes over as chairman of the NFIB/MO Leadership Council.

Joe, an NFIB member since 1985, is the owner of Software To Go in Clayton.

The NFIB Leadership Council is a group of small business owners who work closely with the state director to provide direction in the area of membership, legislative grassroots and political strategy. Members of the Council are from all parts of the state and represent a broad spectrum of businesses.